

I am strongly opposed to any weakening of Indiana's No-Call Phone List. This includes the current attempt by the CBA to allow their banks to call customers they are already doing business with. Prior to being placed on the no-call list, my household received six to seven calls a week from advertisers and other solicitors. My family has enjoyed not being bothered by these senseless phone calls. I absolutely do not want my phone to be used as a media for advertising.